BILL ANALYSIS

Background Information:

The University of Houston is independent of any university system. The organization and control of the university and its component parts is vested in the Board of Regents of the University of Houston. There are presently four university systems in the state, The University of Texas System; The Texas A&M University System; The State Senior College System; and the Non-Baccalaureate System (the junior college system). There are 14 senior colleges, including the University of Houston, which are not a part of any system.

What the Bill Proposes to Do:

The bill would create a University of Houston System which would include all those entities already under the governance of the university's board of regents and any other institutions which might be assigned to the system in the future.

Section by Section Analysis:

- Section 1:
- a) This subsection would create the University of Houston System and include within its jurisdiction all the components presently under the control of the university's board of regents.
  - b) This subsection would allow other entities to be assigned to the system by specific acts of the legislature.
  - c) This subsection would vest control of the system in the board of regents and change the name of the board to the Board of Regents of the University of Houston System.

Section 2: Emergency Clause

Summary of Committee Action:

Public notice was posted in accordance with Rule V, Section 14, Rules of Procedure of the House of Representatives and a public hearing was held on March 2, 1977.

On March 2, 1977 the full committee voted to report H.B. No. 188 back to the House without amendments and the recommendation that it do pass by a vote of 8 ayes and 0 nays.

FISCAL NOTE

February 23, 1977.

Honorable Lyndon Olson, Chairman
Committee on Higher Education
House of Representatives
Austin, Texas

In Re: House Bill No. 188
By: Washington

Sir:

In response to your request pursuant to House Rule V, Section 28, this office finds the fiscal implications of House Bill No. 188 (relating to the creation and composition of the University of Houston System) to be as follows:

The bill would make no appropriation but would constitute prior legislative authorization for an appropriative request.

The probable cost of implementing the provisions of the bill during each of the first five years following passage is estimated as follows:

Fiscal Year	General Fund
1978	$ 496,133
1979	541,228
1980	541,228
1981	541,228
1982	541,228

Similar annual costs would continue as long as the provisions of the bill are in effect.

The provisions of this bill would increase state employment by 15 in fiscal year 1978 and 16 in fiscal year 1979.
